

Position: Lecturer of Sociology

| | |
|---|--|
| Academic Department: | Sociology and Criminal Justice |
| Full Time Faculty Rank: | Lecturer |
| Position Status: | Regular Faculty |
| Tenure Track Status: | Non-Tenure Track |
| Terms of Employment: | 9 Month |
| Contract Type: | Full-time |
| Date Position Available: | 08/07/2017 |
| Application Deadline: | 04/03/2017 |
| Position Qualifications Responsibilities | Kennesaw State University is accepting applications for a fulltime, 9-month non-tenure track position as Lecturer of Sociology in the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice beginning August 2017. The position will primarily support the department by offering a mixture of online and face-to-face courses at the upper and lower levels, as needed by the department. KSU uses the "Quality Matters" certification process for online courses and instructors. The teaching load is nine 3-credit hour courses over the academic year (fall and spring semesters). The position is renewable on a year-to-year basis. Specific expectations: * Teach online sections of Criminology; Drugs, Alcohol, and Society; Deviance and Social Control; Sociology of Violence, and Introduction to Sociology each semester; * Participation in a Learning Community of Online Faculty teaching large size courses; * Teach in both online and face-to-face formats at the upper and lower levels; * Participation in school service; * Experience teaching online at the university level; * A commitment to excellence in teaching. https://facultyjobs.kennesaw.edu/postings/3838 |
| Required Education - Experience Skills (Minimum Qualifications): | Required qualifications include an earned Master's in Sociology or a closely related field, or the foreign equivalent. Terminal degree is desirable. Applicants with the training, ability, and/or experience equivalent to the minimum degree may be considered. An outstanding A.B.D. may be considered if the candidate can provide evidence of experience in teaching at the university level. Experience teaching online at the university level is ideal. |
| Questions About Position Opening: | For questions about this position opening, please contact the Search Committee Chair, Dr. Brian Starks (bstarks3@kennesaw.edu) at Lecturer Search Committee Chair Dept. of Sociology and Criminal Justice Kennesaw State University 402 Bartow Avenue, MD #2204 Kennesaw, GA 30144 |
| Application Instructions | To guarantee consideration, application materials must be received by April 3, 2017 through the university online application system (facultyjobs.kennesaw.edu). Paper applications cannot be considered. Candidates should submit: (1) a letter of application addressing the applicant's qualifications, (2) recent university teaching evaluations, (3) sample course syllabi, (4) current curriculum vitae, (5) unofficial graduate transcripts (Official graduate transcripts are due prior to employment), and (6) three current letters of reference submitted through PeopleAdmin, KSU's online application system. |

| | |
|--|---|
| Department/College Overview | Kennesaw State University has a strong commitment to hiring a diverse faculty and encourages applications from minority and underrepresented groups. The Department wishes to reinforce this and to provide an inclusive learning environment to prepare students for personal and professional success in an increasingly multicultural and global society. Candidates are therefore encouraged to address in their application how they can contribute to the diversity of the community. |
| Kennesaw State University Campus and Location | For more than 50 years, Kennesaw State University has been known for its entrepreneurial spirit and sense of community. Offering campuses in Marietta and Kennesaw, the university is located just north of Atlanta and combines a suburban setting with access to one of the country's most dynamic cities. As Georgia's third largest university, Kennesaw State offers more than 100 undergraduate and graduate degrees, including a growing doctoral program. Designated by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia as a comprehensive university, Kennesaw State is committed to becoming a world-class academic institution positioned to broaden its academic and research missions and expand its scope on a local, regional and national level. |
| EEO Statement | Kennesaw State University, a member of the University System of Georgia, is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, and/or veteran status. Georgia is an Open Records state. |