

ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF SOCIOLOGY AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE. Wingate University, a private residential university with a liberal arts core located near Charlotte, North Carolina, announces a full-time, continuing contract position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor of Sociology and Criminal Justice beginning August 2018. In continuing contract positions, faculty members are considered for professional security after six years of successful teaching. Applicants should have successfully completed a Ph.D. in Sociology or Criminal Justice. Applicants should be prepared to teach introductory courses in sociology and criminal justice, along with required courses in the criminal justice curriculum, including juvenile justice, corrections, research methods, and supervising student internships. In addition to teaching, successful candidate will also be responsible for coordinating the criminal justice program, including helping to recruit and supervise adjunct instructors. Experience or interest in program building is ideal. All candidates should have a strong commitment to teaching undergraduates. Applicants requested to send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and names of three references to Dr. Aaron Culley, Chair of the Sociology and Criminal Justice Search Committee, Campus Box 3064, Wingate University, Wingate, NC 28174 or via email to clong@wingate.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. To assure full consideration, please submit materials by October 31, 2017. Founded in 1896, Wingate University is a private, comprehensive institution offering students active learning opportunities through personalized instruction, world travel, career discovery, faith development and community service. The Chronicle of Higher Education selected Wingate University as a 2016 "Great College to Work For." More information about the university may be found at <https://www.wingate.edu/get-to-know-wingate-university/careers-at-wingate/>