

The Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Criminal Justice seeks applicants for a ten-month, tenure track, faculty position beginning August 1, 2018. All Valdosta State University faculty share the responsibility of teaching courses at multiple levels as needed in their respective disciplines. To carry out our comprehensive mission, we seek faculty with the desire and ability to successfully engage students as they launch or continue their intellectual journey.

The position will be responsible for teaching a 4/4 course load during the academic year (fall/spring). Courses of instruction will include Sociology, primarily Medical Sociology, Research Methods and Statistics, and Racial Inequalities. The successful candidate must be able to successfully conduct research, publish and actively engage in service related activities.

Required qualifications include a doctorate degree in Sociology or a closely related field from an accredited university; at least two years of teaching experience at the university level; a demonstrated commitment to excellence in teaching and learning, as well as scholarship; and a commitment to diversity and inclusion. Preference will be given to those with experience in teaching online Sociology courses at a university.

Online application is required. To apply visit <https://valdosta.peopleadmin.com/postings/14898>. Deadline for application is November 30 2017. For more information on the position contact Dr. Ross, Head, via email dross@valdosta.edu or phone 229-333-5943. Valdosta State University is an Equal Opportunity educational institution and has a strong institutional commitment to diversity. In that spirit, we are particularly interested in receiving applications from a broad spectrum of people, including, but not limited to, minorities, and individuals with disabilities. Valdosta State University has a non-discrimination policy that includes sex, race, color, sexual orientation, religion, age, marital status, national origin, disability, and veteran status.