

Assistant or Associate Professor
Sociology & Criminal Justice
Southeastern Louisiana University

The Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice invites applicants for two tenure-track positions at the rank of Assistant and/or Associate Professor of Criminal Justice beginning in Fall 2018. These positions will involve teaching undergraduate and graduate criminal justice courses, academic advising, maintaining an active program of research and publication and service to the University and Department. Salary is commensurate with experience and qualifications. Applicants must be committed to working with diversity.

Qualifications for position 1 at the rank of Assistant Professor include a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice by hire date. Area of specialization for this position is open. Applicants for position 1 must apply by February 2, 2018 online at: jobs.selu.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=58934

Qualifications for position 2 at the rank of Assistant/Associate Professor include a Ph.D. in Criminology or a closely related field by hire date. Area of specialization for this position is open; however, preference will be given to those with specializations in statistics and/or methods. Applicants for position 2 must apply by February 2, 2018 online at: jobs.selu.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=58933

To apply for this position, please complete and submit an online application, which will include the names and contact information for three references and the following attachments: letter of application addressing qualifications and experience, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, research agenda, and copies of transcripts from all colleges/universities attended (official transcripts required upon employment). Applicants must apply by February 2, 2018.

Southeastern is an AA/ADA/EEO employer.