

The Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice at The University of Alabama invites applications for a tenured Associate or Full Professor. We are seeking someone with expertise that will complement one of the Department's areas of strength: (1) criminal justice systems (i.e. policing, courts, and corrections) and (2) transnational crime (e.g. crime in the Global South, cybercrime, immigration and crime, terrorism). Candidates should have a research record that includes a strong publication record, securing external funding, as well as a commitment to teaching and mentoring students.

The Department of Criminology & Criminal Justice has a growing, research active faculty and strong Bachelor's and Master's degree programs. For additional information about our department, please visit our website at <http://cj.ua.edu>. The University of Alabama, founded in 1831, is the state's flagship institution with an enrollment of over 38,000 students. We are located in Tuscaloosa, AL, a vibrant community of over 100,000 residents that was named an All-America City by the National Civic League. For information about working at The University of Alabama see <http://provost.ua.edu/life-at-ua.html>.

To apply, candidates should go to <https://facultyjobs.ua.edu/postings/45857> to complete an online application and upload (1) a letter of application, (2) a curriculum vitae, and (3) a research statement. Letters of recommendation will be requested for finalists. Inquiries about the position should be sent to cjdept@as.ua.edu. Review of applications will begin October 31st, 2019 and will continue until the position is filled. The University of Alabama is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity, and the diversity of its workforce. Applications from women and minority candidates are strongly encouraged.